

COMMUNITY PARENT NIGHT: TEEN TRENDS

HOSTED BY HUDSONVILLE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Free:

Parent Presentation on current teen trends in Ottawa County and how to prevent teen risky behavior while supporting their skills and passions.

What your kids aren't telling you and what you can do

When: Thursday, March 12, 2015

Time: 7pm to 8:30pm

Where: Baldwin Street Middle School

Presenters: Leigh Moerdyke and Dave Rozman both Youth Development Specialists

RSVP at <http://goo.gl/forms/05PZ5wRrR7>

Questions: Contact Leigh Moerdyke at 616-396-2301

*Please note this presentation is appropriate for adults only.

Parents, are you aware of the latest trends among Ottawa County youth? With all the media coverage of national issues, do you know which ones are actually common in your community? Do you know the great things our youth are passionate about? This workshop will educate you on what youth in Ottawa County are actually saying about their interests and behaviors in which they participate. Learn how to connect with teens and develop strong youth.

